

5 How to pay the “ticket” (medical charges)

According to the law, citizens must pay medical charges (a “ticket”) to cover health expenses. The ticket is necessary for specialized consultations, diagnostic-instrumental exams, tests and drugs. Some citizens are exempt from paying the ticket due to income, health or other conditions.